

ANNUAL REPORT

Location	Meme Division-South West Region
Source	Future Africa Emergency Funds
Reporting period	2024
Report compiled by	Future Africa
Date submitted	JANUARY 2025

Summary

This report is an account of the achievements made in 2024 based on its objectives and targets in the Meme and Fako Division of the south west region. In the course of achieving these tasks a number of targets were set to be achieved within the year as of the experiences of our previous year's activities.

Following the objectives and target set in place not all were achieved but those not achieved will be continued in the year 2025.

The information is transcribed in a table alongside comments for subsequent follow-ups.

FUTURE AFRICA.

Specific Objective one: To improve on the visibility of Future Africa activities both past and present.

Target one: Considering that so much work has been done but not fully documented, Future Africa launched the steps of improving the data base of the website, social media as well as reactivate most resourceful accounts.

Results: The data base of the website, Facebook and other network platform are progressive in update.

Specific Objective Two: Disperse member to Identify Community youth challenges withing the scope of Future Africa activities.

Target one: Member should streamline various community Challenges hindering youth growth which needs urgent attention.

Results: A couple of community concerns have been raised. Measures have been put in place so as to ensure the get the right attention.

Specific objectives three: Future Africa be able to have a Reliable partner to help achieve her goals.

Target one: A good number of projects are earmarked but implementation becomes difficult without a reliable partner and consistent funds.

Results: Members have been encouraged to submit the requests to potential funders for immediate intervention.

The above information is presented in the table below.

S/N	SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE	TARGET	RESULT	Rate of Success	Comment
1	Improve on the visibility of Future Africa activities	Considering that so much work has been done but not fully documented, Future Africa launched the steps of improving the data base of the website, social media as well as reactivate most resourceful accounts.	The data base of the website, Facebook and other network platforms are progressive in update.	75%	This is a continuous activity to keep stakeholders directly informed
2	Identify Community youth challenges	Member should streamline various community Challenges hindering youth growth which needs urgent attention.	A couple of community concerns have been raised. Measures have been put in place so as to ensure the get the right attention.	98%	Youth challenges always drift base on the circumstances but as of now the most striking is the water challenge
3	Reliable partnership	A good number of projects are earmarked but implementation becomes difficult without a reliable partner and consistent funds.	Members have been encouraged to submit the requests to potential funders for immediate intervention.	98%	More Request are still being submitted and there is hope for sponsorship